Fulton Hogan is built on a strong foundation of integrity in its business dealings. We are committed to:

- Our word being our bond
- Dealing fairly with our employees, customers, sub-contractors, suppliers and key stakeholders
- Delivering on our commitments – always
- Taking responsibility for our actions
- Being honest in our dealings
- Recognising that our suppliers need to make a reasonable return for their efforts
- Resolving differences without the need to resort to litigation
- Longer term relationships that build on learnings
- Avoiding any actions which could damage our good name and reputation
- The concept of “no surprises” in our communications with stakeholders
- Treating people with dignity and respect
- Using any market advantage we have responsibly
- Making a positive contribution to the industries in which we operate
- Abiding by the laws of the lands in which we operate
- Employing our assets responsibly both for the company and the wider community we operate in
- Ensuring the commitments we give are owned by all of our people; not only in their words but by their actions
